

I am in favor of adopting this proposal in its present form. It is a well-conceived, fair and balanced approach to the amateur radio service as a whole. This proposal serves well ALL amateur licensee applicants, while addressing a number of fundamental flaws in the present amateur radio operator licensing system. This is the best of several proposals thus far submitted to the FCC for review.